It Is a Way of Men.

A man loved a woman, but she laughed at him. Then, through grief, he became ill, and was like to die, in very despair of her love. Whereat pity touched her heart, and pity grew o love. When he came to know this, having now the love he had so rearned to possess, he rejoiced greatly, and arose from his bed. And straightway he began to love another woman, -Berry Benson, in Century.

Beauty Transferred.

He-I think that often people, from being a great deal together, come to resemble each other. Don't you believe that beauty is sometimes transferred, as it were, in that way?

She-Well, I don't know. But after you and Miss Mayoup took that stroll in the garden last night some of her rouge was on your cheeks.-Boston

Traveller. The One Thing Needful.

Matilda Snowball-Is you in earnest, Mistah Johnsling, wid yore matermonial prepersishon?

Johnsing-I am, indeed, Miss Snowball. I has got er shanty an' chickens an' two mewels an' er pig, an' all I needs is er wife ter make me puffeely happy.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

. Get There Anyhow. "The old man run fer sheriff, didn't he?"

"Yes."

"And they beat him?"

"Yes; but he's still ahead." "How's that?"

"Feller shot the sheriff an' the old man's coroner."-Atlanta Constitution.

RECOGNIZED POWER.

What Dun's Traveling Agent Says.

"I want to state," said Mr. Walsh, and I want to state it with all sincerity, and with ne purpose of flattery, that the EAGLE is doing more to attract business to Wichita than any other agency. I find in my travels everywhere merchants reading the everywhere merchants reading the EAGLE. The business advertising page is doing a world of good, as it shows merchants everywhere the names of the business institutions and what they keep. I never, in all my life, recognized the power of a good newspaper, in the good it can do for its city, so fally and clearly as I have done since I became acquainted with the commercial trade of southern Kausas and Oklahoma."

Battell, a Cincinnati traveling man representing the Queen City Printing Ink Co., after suffering intensely for two or three days with lameness of the shoulder, resulting from rheumatism, completely cured it with two applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This remedy is gaining a wide reputation for its prompt cures of

Once a week personally-conducted excursions are run to the Pacific coast in tourist sleepers. Competent porters and agents in charge. Second-class tickets honored, and good care taken of ladies and children without escort. Very cheap rates for one way or round trip, now in effect. Write to D. Wishart, G. P. Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr. of 1235 Harrison street, Kausas City. "It came upon me again very scutt and saver." The cheece has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe." he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant.
